

Internet Safety | Web Sites

Many of these web sites have separate sections for young children, teens, parents and teachers. Explore various sites to find useful information for you & your family.

www.webwise.ie

Internet Safety Advice (Ireland)

Excellent resources for children, teens and parents; guidelines for Internet surfing, social networking, etc. See Safer Internet Day newsletter: <http://bit.ly/93nurz>

www.kidsmart.org.uk

Internet Safety Advice (UK)

Information about Internet safety; interactive presentation for parents; advice sheets

www.bewebaware.ca

Be Web Aware (Canada)

How parents can effectively manage Internet use at home & teach kids to be Web savvy; safety tips by age

www.connectsafely.org

Connect Safely (USA)

Wealth of safety tips and advice, for teens & parents

www.netfamilynews.org

Net Family News (USA)

Excellent, weekly “kid-tech newsletter” sent to parents and educators in over 50 countries

www.getnetwise.org

Get Net Wise coalition (USA)

Keeping children safe online; stopping spam; protection from hackers & viruses; keeping personal info private

www.hotline.ie

Hotline.ie (Ireland)

Advice for parents; how to report suspected illegal content encountered on the Internet

www.safekids.com

SafeKids.com (USA)

Making the Internet/technology fun, safe & productive; videos for teens, e.g. “what you post can haunt you forever”

www.chatdanger.com

Chat Danger (UK)

Guidelines about how to keep safe while chatting on-line: includes mobiles, e-mail & internet

<http://deal.org/the-knowzone>

Great web site for teens; tackles youth issues including internet safety, bullying, substance abuse.

www.thinkuknow.co.uk

Child Exploitation & Online Protection Centre CEOP (UK)

Excellent age-grouped web sites for children and parents: “Find the latest information on the sites you like to visit, mobiles and new technology. Find out what’s good, what’s not and what you can do about it.”